BARACK OBAMA WINS !!

90% OF OLY STUDENTS OVERWHELMINGLY VOTE FOR OBAMA

The student council recently held a poll to see who would vote Democratic, Republican, or Independent. Looks like 90% of our students voted Democratic by casting an overwhelming vote for Barrack Obama.

Hopefully any of our students that are old enough to vote will be responsible and vote on November 4th. This is the primary way for a citizen of the United States to exercise his or her rights.

It can be very confusing to make a decision, let alone understand what all of the different propositions and initiatives even mean. Now, we will just wait and see if the rest of the country agrees with Olympic High.

You can find registration applications in Ms. Miller's office. All you need to do is fill out the form and drop it in the mail. Postage Paid! Time to get to get involved and think how tight it will be to come home with an "I Voted" sticker.

3 CONTESTS - 3 FREE HALLOWEEN IPOD SHUFFLES SCARIEST, MOST CREATIVE, RANDOM DRAWING

Attention Olympic High Students!

As you all know Halloween is just around the corner. Start getting prepared and planning out your costumes because your student council is planning on having a Halloween contest and will be giving away three Ipod shuffles. All we ask is that you show up on Friday the 31st in a costume or with something Halloween on and you will then be put into a drawing for one of the Ipods. The other two ways you are able to win an Ipod is by winning either scariest or most creative costume. You have two weeks to start planning and getting it all together, so be creative and have fun.

(Limit: One Ipod per person)

NEED A NEW IPOD?

Show up Friday the 31st with anything Halloween looking and you could win...

The Gossip Corner

In recent gossip news, Hugh Hefner has recently broken up with his girlfriend of seven years, Holly Madison. They broke up because Holly finally realized that she and Hef were never going to get married, even though he told her six months ago that it was never going to happen. "If Holly says it's over, I guess it's over," Hef said in an interview last Wednesday.

In T.V. news, Saturday Night Live is going primetime. To reenact the recent debates, SNL is going to have put their comedic twist on them. They are in talks of having political guests, such as Sarah Palin, who has yet to confirm her business.

Over the past few months, rumors have been flying around about Madonna and Guy Ritchie's marriage, about how it is over. These rumors began in summer, when Madonna was supposedly seen with Yankee baseman Alex Rodriguez, or, as he's also known, A-Rod. It all started when Guy was going back and forth from New York to London. Well, reps for both have confirmed that they are getting a divorce. They have one biological child, Rocco, and have adopted another, David. They were together for nearly nine years.

Vanessa Hudgens has bought her dream home in Studio City, California. She visited the 5,200 square foot Tuscan-style villa with beau Zac Efron five times. The house has six bedrooms, a movie theatre, a wine cellar, and maid quarters. The question is whether or not Zac will move in.... In other Disney news, the days are counting down to the premiere of the highly anticipated High School Musical 3 on October 24th, 2008.

In Broadway news, Katie Holmes' show, All My Sons, is doing far better than Daniel Radcliffe's show, Eqqus. All My Sons is filling up seats, while Eqqus is barely filling up seats.

Britney Spears is finally getting her life back together. Her single, "Womanizer" is #1 almost every night on KIIS FM. Her album, Circus is coming out in November. Britney is getting more visits with her sons, which seems to be really inspiring her to comeback. And this time, she's going to do it right.

BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT

Thank you everyone who came to back to school night. It was a huge success and we were all very happy to see everyone who showed up along with his or her parents and guardians. If you were unable to show up we talked about measurement BB which is already taking place.

Measurement BB is a bond that will re-modernize our school. Mr. Suminski's room one is an example of measurement BB and is still taking place.

The district has come up with a way so that most of the construction and re-modeling will be taking place after school hours so that students don't have to miss any school days. Everyone that showed up along with their parents and guardians should have already received 50 points from their advisors and anyone that didn't show up but your parents or guardians did should have received 25 points. -DB

K9 - Success Once Again – Thanks to the K9 People!

The K9 class was a success, once again. Students mixed it up with the dogs for a few weeks and everyone seemed to come out a winner. There were many adoptions, after the dogs and students went through their training.

The volunteers that work along with the K9 Krew should all be applauded. The work they do is really special. Samantha G. caught up with a couple of students on the Krew and asked them what word describes their experience with K9.
